Strata's humble trainee. It's normal to feel anxious at first, but don't worry—it causes wrinkles! Just read this chapter and learn how to grow your shop into a stunning success, stress free.

Chapter 4: Living Fabulously

Chapter 7: Client Index

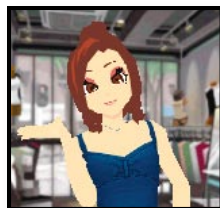

The last few pages of this guide provide ample space for you to jot down notes about all your customers. Each time you help someone new, turn to the back of the

Fabulous Friends

Style Savvy is just full of unique characters. Here are some of the friendly faces you'll meet during your rise to the height of the fashion community:

Grace

Grace is the savvy manager of Strata, a successful fashion boutique in town. She acts as your mentor while you're learning the ropes of the fashion biz; she's like everyone's cool older sister.

Renée

This sassy young lass has been working at Strata for about a month. She's a bit standoffish when meeting new coworkers, perhaps seeing them as competition. However, once Renée warms up to someone, they've made a true friend for life.

Godfrey

Godfrey may be a humble butler, but he fills many different roles. He is Libby's grandfather and Dominic's trusty servant and would-be matchmaker. Godfrey is fiercely loyal to Master

Dominic and genuinely cares about him.

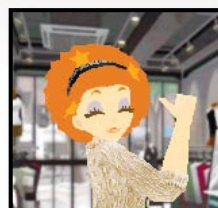

Dominic

The dashing young owner of Strata, Dominic is very well educated, having attended some of the finest boarding schools in the world.

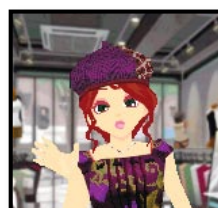

Eunice

Eunice's uptight and worrisome nature lends her an antiquated air. She takes her job as Dominic's maid very seriously, and she doesn't seem to like it when other women visit the mansion.

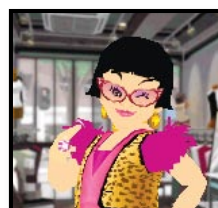

Didi

Didi is the owner of the town's premier hair salon.

Olivia

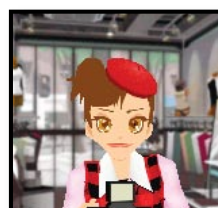

Olivia is the town's foremost makeup artist.

Rococco

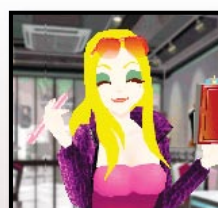

Rococco grew up in a small town but always longed to experience the international world of fashion. She offers constant encouragement with terms of endearment such as "darling" and "mon petit chou-chou." She has a very high opinion of herself.

Libby

Libby is clumsy, easily excitable, and extremely outgoing. Libby takes photography seriously but seems to regularly end up in one debacle or another.

Felicity

Felicity is the hip, outgoing author of a happening fashion magazine, so expect a visit from her if you wow the crowd at a fashion show!

STARTING OUT Strata

Even the world's best fashion designers had to start somewhere, and your career begins at Strata, the premier clothing store in your hometown. The shop's manager, a friendly fashion expert named Grace, is excited to show her new trainee (that's you!) how to get down to business.

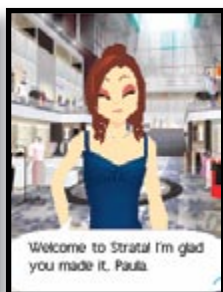

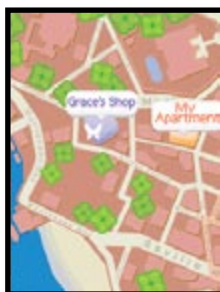

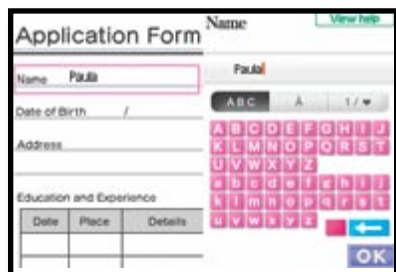

Guided by Grace

Grace phones you at your apartment and reminds you to bring your application to the store—but you'd better fill it out first! Just tap the letters to spell your name, then tap the OK button in the lower-right corner. Enter your birth date on the next page, and that's it—you're done!

You get a brief glimpse of the town map as you travel to Grace's shop. You'll be seeing a lot more of it later!

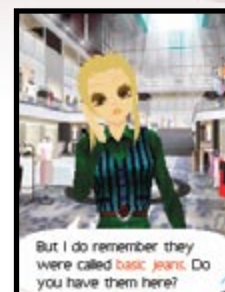

And here you are, your first day at Strata!

Grace welcomes you, saying she's happy to have a new stylist on hand. You're about to find out why—Strata is a happening place!

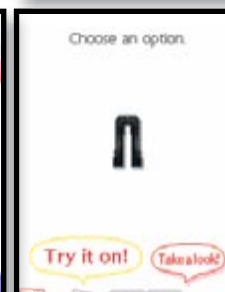

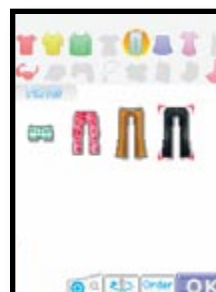

Zoe's Jeans

It's not long before a customer comes through the door, a young woman named Zoe. She's hoping to buy some "basic jeans" she saw in a magazine. Let's see if you can help her out!

Since this is your first sale, Grace helps you navigate the stockroom. Just follow her instructions and select "basic jeans."

Next, you must choose how to present the item to the customer. You've found exactly what Zoe was looking for, so she'll love your selection. When you know you've scored the perfect match, tap "Try it on!" to present the item with confidence!

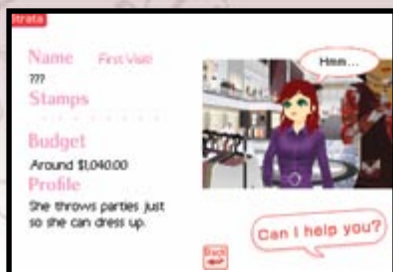

Great work! Zoe loves the jeans you've picked out and buys them straightaway. You can bet she'll be back soon!

Chantal's Dress

Grace congratulates you on completing the sale just as another customer waltzes in. Tap the customer to bring up her info, then tap “Can I help you?” to start assisting her.

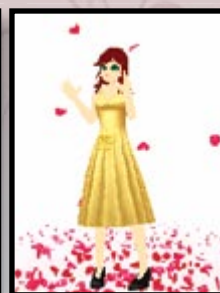

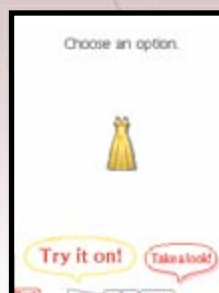

The customer's name is Chantal, and she's looking for a formal dress—but not just any formal dress. Chantal asks for one that lets her friends know how “posh” she is, one that fits her “high-end” look. Clients often drop clues like this, and these clues help you find their favorite brands and styles, so listen carefully!

Grace has only four dresses in stock: two from Alvarado and two from April Bonbon. Alvarado is a posh, high-end brand, so either of their dresses will do. However, a glance at Chantal's info page shows that she's willing to spend about $1,000 on a dress today—so pick Alvarado's more expensive satin-ribbon formal dress.

TIP

Always push your client's pocketbooks to the max like this when picking out items—they won't balk at the price tag, as long as it's within their budget! Tap the Order button at the lower right to quickly repeat your client's order and view the money they're willing to spend.

All right, time to close this sale. You've found the exact sort of dress that Chantal was looking for, so ask her to “Try it on!”

Wow, Chantal really liked your suggestion! Whenever you see rose petals flutter across the screen, you know you've made a great pick. Chantal couldn't be happier—in fact, you've put her in the mood to keep shopping! That's right, Chantal wants to buy something else from you. This wouldn't have happened if you'd only asked her to “Take a look!”

CAUTION

Telling customers to “Try it on!” is a great way to score extra sales, but it's also risky—if the customer doesn't like what you've chosen, they'll leave without a second thought! It's therefore best to have clients take a look when you're not sure if they'll like what you've found; this lets you hear their feedback and avoid losing sales. Occasionally, customers may pause to take a second look at an item they aren't immediately thrilled with, giving you one last chance to nudge them toward buying it. See the “Persuade and Profit” section for details.

Thrilled by the dress you've picked out, Chantal now trusts you to find some matching footwear. A quick look at the stockroom shows the perfect match: some open-arch pumps by Alvarado. The price tag is high, but you've got Chantal in the spending mood. Go ahead and tell Chantal to “Try it on!”

TIP

Once you've discovered your client's favorite brand, you've got them pegged. Just keep showing them items from that brand, and they're very likely to love everything you pick out. Use the client index at the back of this book to keep track of all your shoppers' favorite styles!

Style Savvy

Prima Official Look Book

Chantal is as pleased as punch, and you've just earned Strata over $1,500 in seconds flat. Looks like someone's got a knack for the fashion biz!

Nuances. Tap each page to view them, then tap the red X button to return to work.

NOTE

A new issue of Nuances comes out each month, so check the stands often!

Melanie's Dress

Your third customer is a young lady named Melanie, who's looking for a casual dress. She doesn't offer much insight into the brands she likes, but it's clear from her clothing and budget that she's not after Alvarado!

Grace still has four different dresses in stock, two of which are colorful, affordable pieces by April Bonbon. Pick the pricier plaid overall dress and have Melanie "Try it on!"

Margaret's Top

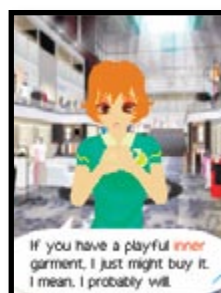

Your next customer, Margaret, is looking for a high-end top to layer over her shirt. You've already learned that "high-end" is synonymous with the brand Alvarado, so this is an easy sale. Have Margaret try on Alvarado's leather bolero vest to wow her with your keen sense of style.

Tiffany's Outer Piece

Tiffany strolls through the door next, asking you to find a "high-end" outer piece to match her "posh" style. Sell her the sheepskin jacket by Alvarado to impress Grace with another satisfied customer.

Kitty's Inner Piece

Next, a bright young woman named Kitty would like your help in finding a playful inner garment. You have a few solid options to choose from, but the word "playful" is a big clue—it's synonymous with the brand April Bonbon! Pick the music-note tee by April Bonbon and have Kitty "Try it on!"

Good choice! Kitty loves the inner piece, and because you showed such confidence in selling it, she decides to keep shopping for a skirt. Again, this only happens if you asked Kitty to "Try it on!" You've discovered Kitty's favorite brand, so choosing a skirt for her is easy. Show Kitty the dotted lattice miniskirt by April Bonbon to shock her with your spot-on fashion sense yet again.

Renée the Reader

You're not the only new stylist under Grace's sage tutelage: A sassy young lass named Renée has been working at Strata for about a month now, and she pops by to say hi as Melanie leaves with her new threads. Renée hints that you should read the latest issue of the fashion magazine Nuances to keep up on all the latest styles and trends.

Take Renée's advice and tap the little magazine button at the bottom of the screen. This brings up this month's issue of

Aiding Renée

Seeing your streak of successes, Renée asks you to help her with a particularly difficult customer named Winona, who's looking for a top. Winona doesn't give you many clues, but it's clear that she needs a better eye for fashion than Renée's!

Pick whichever top you like from the stockroom. This time, tell Winona to "Take a look!" She'll give you her feedback until you find a top she likes (try Alvarado's leather bolero vest).

NOTE

You may ask a customer to take a look up to three times. If they don't like any of your choices, they'll demand to try on your fourth suggestion. If they still don't like what you show them, they're out the door!

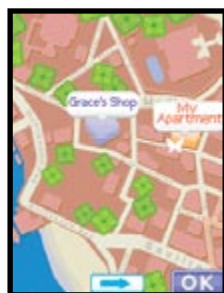

Just keep assisting customers until you reach Grace's goal. Remember to have customers "Take a look!" and give their opinion if you're not sure what they'll like. When you're pretty sure you've found an ideal garment, take a risk and say, "Try it on!" for a chance at wowing clients and scoring extra sales. See the sidebar for a quick overview of the various clothing brands—it'll help you figure out what your customers want!

TIP

If you're feeling weary, skip out for a minute and return to your apartment to save your game. Don't worry about the customers; they'll just keep browsing until you return!

Break Time

The store quiets down, and Grace invites you to take a break. What a perfect chance to return to your apartment and save your progress! Tap the Exit button at the screen's bottom to leave Strata and view the town map, then double-tap your apartment to go there.

Most options are closed to you except the Save command. Click the button to save all your progress up to this point. When you're finished, tap the Exit button and return to Strata to finish your shift.

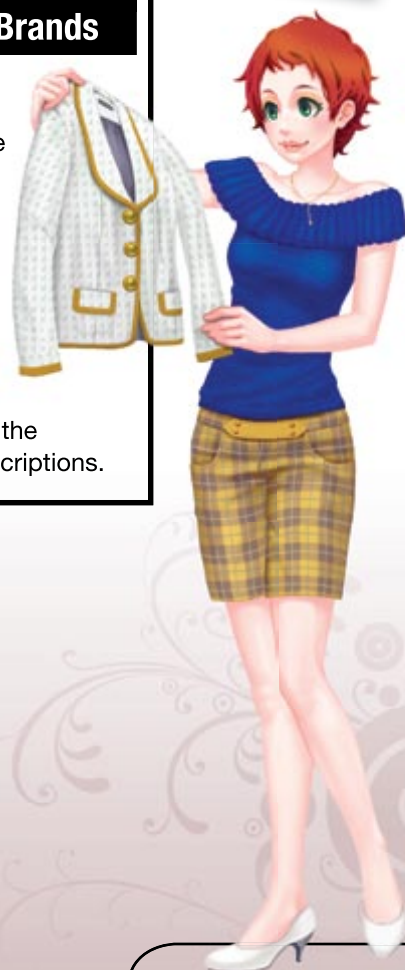

Back at Strata

When you return to work, Grace gives you a few pointers on the basics of style and how to match garments to create eye-catching ensembles. She then says she'd like the store's funds to reach the $8,000 mark before closing for the day. Better get selling!

Labeling the Brands

With 16 unique clothing brands—and a wide range of customer tastes—it helps to know a little about each brand's style. Listen closely to what your customers ask for and match any key words with the following brand descriptions.

Vision of Beauty

With her store left in your capable hands, Grace decides to sneak out and visit her boss's mansion, which is right in town. There, Grace has an interesting conversation with the butler, Godfrey, about her newest assistant (that's you!). During their chat, Grace describes how you look to Godfrey—but you actually get to tell her how to describe your features! Have Grace tell Godfrey about your face, eyes, mouth, skin tone, and more until you've finished creating your character.

NOTE

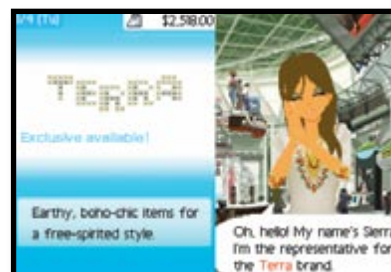

The only appearance options that can't be changed later in the game are your eyes, skin tone, and the shape of your face and lips. Everything else can be altered down the line.

Shopping Trip

Upon returning to Strata, Grace notices that her stock is running low. This won't do, and Grace invites you to join her on a trip to the buyer's center to pick up some new styles! Find the buyer's center on the town map and double-tap it to travel there.

Grace asks you to purchase some Terra pants. Easy enough! Just visit the Terra store (the only store that's available at present) and buy as few or as many pants as you like.

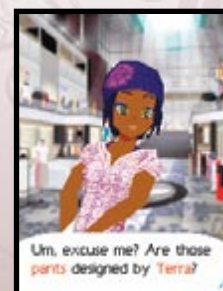

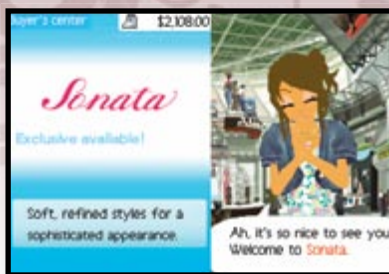

Fashion to Flaunt

tap the Wardrobe button to change your clothes. Take your time and pick out a stylish new ensemble that uses some of those new Terra threads!

Grace's guidance was spot-on; just moments after you return to Strata in your new duds, a customer decides to buy the same pants. Well, you do look fabulous in them, after all!

your savvy cardigan selections, then sell one to Winona when you get back to the shop.

Continue helping customers and impressing Grace with strong sales. She'll soon send you out on another shopping excursion to the buyer's center. Further impress Grace with

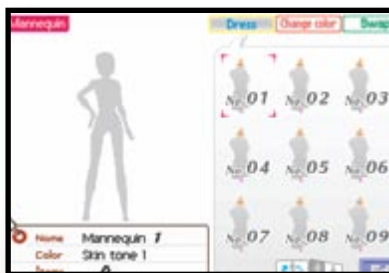

Park Break with Renée

Keep those sales ringing in until you're given another break. This time, you and Renée take your breaks together, enjoying a pleasant stroll through the local park. There, you meet Godfrey, the mansion butler, who seems quite taken with Strata's newest employee (that's you!). In fact, he gets all excited and hurries off. Wonder where to?

Model Mannequin

Back at the shop, continue helping customers in an effort to hit an even higher sales goal. Soon, Grace asks you to dress a mannequin to help attract more customers. Sounds like fun!

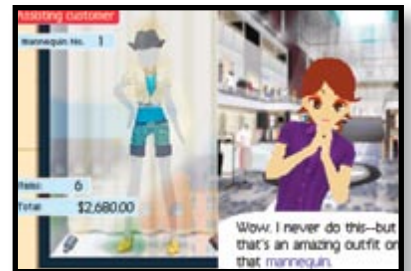

Tap the Menu button at the bottom of the screen to visit the shop's menu. Then tap "Shop Display" to view Strata's mannequins. Tap any of the mannequins to begin dressing it.

This mannequin will be on display in Strata's window, so you'd better dress it well! Here's a tip.

Presto! Your mannequin is put on display as soon as you finish dressing it. Renée and Grace may have some pointers for you afterward. Listen closely to their advice, and make any necessary adjustments to the mannequin's outfit.

When you're happy with your mannequin's look, return to work and continue helping customers. Eventually, someone will notice your mannequin and will ask to purchase the whole ensemble. Cha-ching! Grace is sure to be thrilled by such a huge sale.

Renée's Outfit

After you complete a few more sales, Grace will let Renée take a break. Renée decides to shop during her break and asks you to build a whole outfit to match her inner piece, a shirt by Alvarado.

Renée is loaded, so take her to the cleaners and pick out as many spendy pieces by Alvarado as you can. Like regular customers, Renée is bound to love whatever you find her, so long as you stick to her favorite brand. Just be sure not to overdo it with the layers—skirts over pants can look silly, you know?

TIP

Tap the Search button at the top of the screen, then choose to search by brand. This will help you dress your mannequin in a specific style, increasing the chances that a customer will fall in love with the whole ensemble and buy it!

So Long, Strata

You've done a spectacular job learning the ins and outs of the fashion biz, and your talent hasn't gone unnoticed. At Godfrey's request, Strata's owner decides to visit his store and meet you in person!

The owner is a dashing young man named Dominic. While Renée swoons, Godfrey suggests that Dominic open a new store for you to run on your own. The young owner is intrigued and makes you an offer. Looks like your career has just taken a huge leap forward!

Setting Up Shop

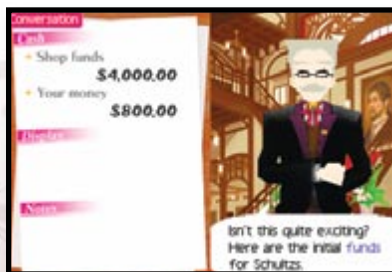

First, give your store a name—it can be anything you like, up to a maximum of eight characters (and no more than six numbers in a row).

NOTE

Many interior and music options are locked at first. Flip to the next chapter to learn how to unlock these extras and more!

Pleased with your choices, Dominic calls for Godfrey to fill in the rest. The butler quickly appears and tells you that Dominic has graciously given you some start-up cash and filled your stockroom with a few items to help get you started. Sounds like you're off to a great start!

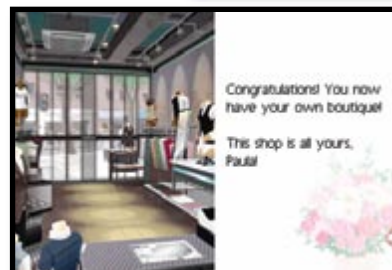

Open for Business

Swing by your apartment to save your progress if you like, then pop into Strata to speak with Grace. Your mentor has exciting news: Dominic has just called, and your store is all set up! Sprint out of Strata and tap "My Shop" to check out your new boutique.

Congratulations! The doors to your shop are now open, and the place is ready for you to run! You've certainly come a long way in a short time, but don't be nervous—you've made some great friends along the way, and Grace, Renée, Godfrey, and Dominic will always be there for you with advice and words of encouragement. Now get out there and show the world how stylish you are!

Your STYLIN' STORE

You've shown yourself to be a fantastic saleswoman. So fantastic that Dominic has entrusted you with your very own fashion boutique! This chapter covers everything you need to know about running your shop, from wowing customers and completing sales to replenishing your stockroom, and more.

Satisfaction Guaranteed

Grace did a great job teaching you the basics of high fashion, and you sure caught on quick! But the first thing you'll notice after opening your shop is that customers are a bit harder to please. They give you fewer hints about what they're looking for, and many will simply ask you to find them something that fits their style, without really telling you what their style is. Tough customers, for sure! But not to worry; here we review some tried-and-true techniques that'll help you close even the trickiest of sales.

NOTE

Each sale you complete earns you shop funds, which you use to buy more stock for your store. A percentage of each sale is also added to your money, which you use to buy personal goodies such as makeup, new hairstyles, and that sort of thing. In short, satisfying customers is the key to growth and success in the fashion biz.

Eye for Fashion

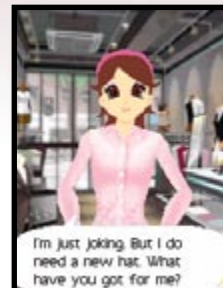

When a new customer offers few verbal clues, get visual! Take a close look at what they're wearing, then consider the various clothing brands and try to guess which label they seem to like best. Mind those colors, too!

TIP

Useful clues may be found within a customer's profile as well. Read up and get to know your clients.

For example, take this customer. She's looking for a hat, but what brand does she prefer? As you've learned from working at Strata, finding the right brand is super important—but telling all those brands apart can be tricky! Make educated guesses by scanning your stockroom for items that match the outfit that the customer is wearing. Pick something out, then ask your client to “Take a look!” If she adores your choice, your job is done!

Until you've discovered the brands and colors your clients prefer, ask them to “Take a look!” instead of saying “Try it on!” If you say “Try it on!” but guess wrong, they'll leave without buying a thing (unless they decide to think it over—then you'll have one last chance to change their mind! See the “Persuade and Profit” section for details.).

If you make a few guesses but can't seem to find the perfect style, try matching colors instead. For example, this customer is wearing all black—not hard to guess her favorite shade! Offer her something simple, affordable, and black, and see if you can persuade her to branch out and try a slightly different style than she's used to. There's nothing wrong with broadening those horizons once in a while!

Well, what do you know? It worked! Another satisfied customer.

Make good use of the Client Index at the back of this book. Each time you meet a new customer, write their name down in this section, along with the brands and colors they prefer (and even the ones they don't). The next time the customer crosses your welcome mat, you'll have a good idea of what they like. Knowing your clients helps you sell with confidence!

Persuade and Profit

Customers won't always be thrilled with what you show them when you say "Try it On!", but they may still consider buying the item. This doesn't happen very often, but it's more likely to occur when:

1. You don't have the specific style the customer wants (inner, cami, etc.), so you show them something different that's made by their favorite brand.
2. You don't have anything by your customer's favorite brand, so you show them something different that's in their favorite color.

When you don't have the exact perfect piece, put this info to use and try enticing your customer into buying something anyway. If they stop to consider the purchase, you'll have one last chance to broaden your clients' horizons and get them to buy something they otherwise wouldn't! Do your best to close the sale by picking the proper dialogue line. Unfortunately, you never know which line will seal the deal, but with only two choices, you've always got a fifty-fifty chance!

super easy. Just compare the descriptive clue with the brand descriptions, and voila, a perfect match!

TIP

Forget what your customer asked for? Don't sweat it: just tap the Order button at the bottom of the screen for a quick review!

Petals of Perfection

Whenever you're fairly certain you've found the perfect item, take a risk and say "Try it on!" instead of "Take a look!" By presenting items in this fun, fearless fashion, you just might convince your clients to open their purses and buy a bit more than they bargained for!

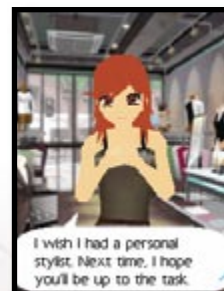

Ensemble Enthusiasts

Once in a while, you'll luck out big-time and meet a customer who'd like you to assemble a whole ensemble for them. These big spenders are a boon to your budget—take your assets to the max by picking out as many pieces from the proper brand as you've got! Don't go cheap either; pick the priciest pieces, and push their pocketbook to the limit! (But don't go over the limit, mind you.)

Just Browsing

Some customers are a bit flaky when it comes to commitment, and you can't always help them out of their shell right away. Shy types may just pop in to say how much they like your shop, then leave without asking for anything. Don't worry—they'll be back! In the meantime, focus on helping the clients who are interested in spending their hard-earned dollars on the fabulous fashions you've filled your store with.

Easy Money

Not every customer is tough to please. Some are easy-breezy—provided you've got the proper stock. The simplest customers are the ones who bring in a beloved item and ask you to show them something that matches the piece—like this young beauty queen!

While browsing your stock room for a matching item, look at the info on the left. You'll see the brand of the item the customer brought in, eliminating all guesswork. Just search your stock room by brand for a matching item, then present it with confidence by telling them to "Try it on!" You're almost certain to please, and who knows? You might even make the customer so happy that she'll keep on spending!

Then there are customers like the ones you helped at Strata, the knowledgeable ladies who know exactly what they want and tell you just what that is. Whenever a client gives you a descriptive clue like "I want something sporty," or "I like playful clothes," they're making your job

If a customer mentions that they wish you had clothes in their style, take a good look at what they're wearing, and try to guess which brand your stockroom is light on. A trip to the buyer's center may be in order!

Stocking Up

No matter how talented a saleswoman you may be, you'll disappoint a lot of customers if your stockroom isn't up to snuff. Not to worry; just follow these simple tips to develop and maintain a healthy stockroom!

The Buyer's Center

You will purchase all clothes at the buyer's center, which is located on the east side of town. Here, representatives from each clothing brand stand ready to sell you their stylish goods. It's all very straightforward, but there are a few details to keep in mind:

- All buyer's center purchases are made with shop funds.
- Every item you buy is permanently added to your apartment wardrobe. This lets you wear and model them for customers at your shop!
- You cannot own more than 10 of any single item.
- Your stockroom has limited space for different styles. See this chapter's "Godfrey's Unlockables" section to learn how to increase your stockroom's style capacity.
- The available brands and their goods change throughout the day. Visit the buyer's center every so often to see what's new!

In addition, you'll sometimes hear about rare items that are on sale when you first enter the buyer's center. There's usually one rare item for sale each day. Be sure to stock up on these uncommon styles—you never know when you'll see them again!

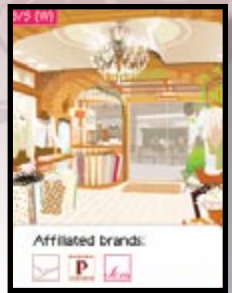

TIP

Your daily planner tells you which brands you'll find at the buyer's center each day. Just tap the little Daily Planner button that appears on the bottom of the screen at many locations, such as your shop and your apartment. Then tap through the days of the week to see which brands are scheduled to appear!

Interior Superior

Knowing how to buy items at the buyer's center is one thing, but understanding which items you should buy is another story! The main thing to consider is your shop's interior, because all interiors have affiliated brands. This means your store will attract specific customers based on the interior you choose. Focus on buying items from brands that are affiliated with your shop's interior, because you'll be seeing a lot of their loyal shoppers.

Forgot your interior's affiliated brands? No prob! Just pop into your store, tap the Menu button, then tap "Music/Interior." Here you can view all the available interiors, see their affiliated brands, and even change your shop's interior to attract new clientele anytime you like.

NOTE

Picking an interior with few affiliated brands narrows the scope of your store and makes satisfying customers a little easier. Choosing interiors with several affiliated brands lets you branch out and attract a wider variety of customers—though you'll also need to fill your stockroom with a broader spread of styles.

TIP

Visit Dominic's mansion or check the "Godfrey's Unlockables" section in this chapter to learn what it takes to unlock every interior and more.

Stockroom Stuffing

Armed with ample shop funds and the knowledge of your shop's affiliated brands, you're ready to start purchasing new threads from the buyer's center. Keep the following tips in mind, and you're sure to develop a healthy, versatile stockroom:

Style Savvy

Prima Official Look Book

Start cheap! You won't have a ton of funds at first, so it pays to begin modestly and buy a variety of affordable items from your shop's affiliated brands. Set a limit and avoid spending oodles on any single item.

Mix it up! Buy a few items from each clothing category (innies, tops, pants, skirts, etc.) so that you're prepared to sell customers any sort of item they might want.

Fill gaps! The Search tool is a great way to quickly see what your stockroom lacks. Make sure you've got at least one of everything, and vary those colors!

Consider the season! Heavy outer garments and furry winter boots aren't likely to sell very well in the heat of August. Consider the climate and buy accordingly!

Amass ensembles! As you earn more funds, start buying slightly more expensive garments to create spendy ensembles. Then display these outfits on mannequins the moment you return to your shop. You just might sell them all at once for huge profits!

Attracting Customers

Once your stockroom is skillfully stuffed, it's time to attract customers and replenish those shop funds. The following sections outline the key ways to draw lots of foot traffic.

Displaying Mannequins

Mannequins are the mightiest advertising tools available to you at first. You may display up to three mannequins in your store window, and you can have up to nine mannequins dressed in your stockroom and ready for the spotlight at any time. To dress a mannequin, first tap the Menu button, then tap "Shop Displays." Then simply piece together ensembles you'd like to show off—and hopefully sell for big bucks!

TIP

Use the Search button to view your stockroom's clothes by brand, then dress your mannequins in ensembles by brands that are affiliated with your shop. Try to always have at least one mannequin on display for each of your shop's affiliated brands.

Ads and Flyers

After successfully attracting 35 visitors to your shop, you may visit Dominic's mansion and ask Godfrey to unlock a special function called Advertisements and Flyers. Both are useful for attracting customers, but in different ways. Once you unlock the Advertisements and Flyers function, tap the Menu button while at your shop and then tap "Ads and Flyers" to begin creating one or the other.

Ads are used to attract in-game customers. But rather than promoting full ensembles (like a mannequin does), ads put the spotlight on just one or two items. This is great when you've got multiple copies of rare items and the like. Get creative and send out some ads to discover the power of focused marketing!

Flyers, on the other hand, are used to attract other players. That's right! By creating flyers at your shop, then saving and quitting out to the main menu, you're able to send your flyers to other players through DS Wireless Play. Who knows? You just might lure other shop owners to come visit your Nintendo Wi-Fi Connection store and see what you've got in stock!

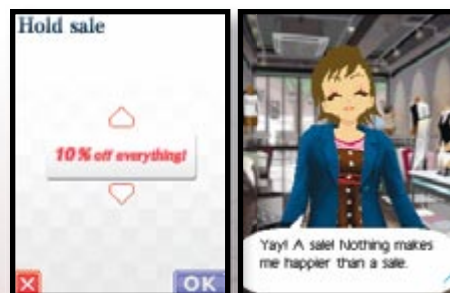

NOTE

Check the next chapter, "Living Fabulously," for more on Nintendo WFC activities.

Sales

Attract 105 visitors to your shop and you'll unlock a very useful function: the mighty sale! No other marketing tool has the power to draw in customers like a sale. The best part is, in Style Savvy, sales begin and end whenever you like. Just tap the Menu button, then tap "Hold sale" to begin or end a sale at your shop.

Almost instantly, you'll notice the incredible effect sales have. Customers will flood your shop, elated to begin bargain-hunting. Many will ask you to piece together full ensembles for them, eager to cash in on the savings while the getting's good! This makes sales a great way to inject quick cash into your store funds—and to clear out your stockroom so you can squeeze in some new styles.

Shop Rating

Completing sales dumps funds into your shop and wallet—that's obvious. But there's another reason to satisfy your customers in Style Savvy: Every successful transaction pushes your boutique one notch closer to the next shop rating! Shop ratings are measured in stars, from zero (lowest) to five (highest). Whenever your shop rating goes up, Dominic visits your store to congratulate you on your success.

Your shop's rating is important for a number of reasons. For instance, you need high shop ratings if you wish to unlock all the extras and participate in Rococco's most challenging fashion contests. In addition, the higher your shop rating, the more money you'll earn from each transaction! The following table shows the sales transaction milestones you must reach to achieve each shop rating—check your shop info by tapping the Menu button to see its current rating.

Shop Ratings

Successful Sales	Stars
30 more (50 total)	2
40 more (90 total)	3
50 more (140 total)	4
60 more (200 total)	5

NOTE

The transaction counter resets to zero each time your shop rating goes up. For example, after gaining your first star, you must complete 30 more transactions to earn your second, and so on.

Landing 200 sales may sound like a lot of work, but it won't take long if you practice the tips and strategies covered in this chapter. Make good use of mannequins, ads, and sales. Fill your stockroom with care. And don't forget to keep a record of your customers in the Client Index at the back of this guide so you can be sure to satisfy those who've shopped with you before!

Losing Stars

Beware: spending too much time away from your shop (30 days or more) prompts Grace to “grace” you with her presence when you finally return. Your mentor will put your skills to the test, asking you to complete a sale while she watches, just to make sure you haven't lost the touch. If you fail the sale, your shop rating will drop by one star! Do your best to nail the sale, putting Grace's fears to rest and maintaining your shop rating.

TIP

When Grace puts your skills on trial, always look for the easiest customer in line. There's usually someone you've helped before, someone whose information you just might have jotted down in the handy Client Index at the back of this book! And if you're not above cheating, just restart your game if you fail so you can try Grace's challenge again.

LIVING Fabulously

You've learned how to run your shop with stunning success, but there's a lot more to life than just work! When you're ready to clock out for the day, explore some of the exciting activities you can enjoy outside of work in Style Savvy.

Your Apartment

When you just need to get away from it all, your diva den is always there. Here you can save your game, change your clothes, put on some new makeup, and more:

Save: Tap the Save

button to save all your progress. You may then quit to the main menu or continue playing. Remember to save often!

Profile: Tap the Profile button to view and change your name.

Sound: Tap the Sound button to view and change the game's audio volume.

Wardrobe: Tap the Wardrobe button to change your clothes. Remember to model your newest styles for customers—they just might decide to buy the same look!

Hair and Makeup: Tap the Hair and Makeup button to change your cosmetics. Try to wear colors and styles that match your ensembles!

My Picks: Tap the My Picks button to browse your wardrobe and pick out your favorite items. All of your picks will have a tiny heart icon next to them, which makes them easy to find as your wardrobe grows. (Your picks will also be highlighted in your shop's stockroom, and you can make picks at work through the Shop menu.)

Album: Tap the Album button to view your personal photo album. All the glamor pics Libby has taken of you are kept here, so you can view them anytime you like!

NOTE

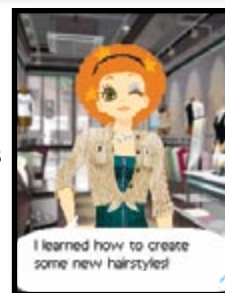

The My Picks and Album functions are locked at first but become available after you open your own shop.

Didi's Hair Salon

Tired of rocking that same old hairdo? Then stroll over to Didi's hair salon, where the super-talented stylist can change your hairstyle, dye your do, and even add eye-catching highlights!

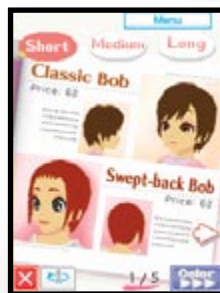

Didi pops into your shop shortly after you open, letting you know that her awesome salon has opened for business. She'll also stop by whenever she's learned how to whip up new styles and colors, and she'll invite you to come see what's new.

TIP

Not sure what styles to try? Tap the little Magazine button while visiting the salon to check out Didi's mag rack and discover the latest looks!

Like most things in Style Savvy, Didi's hair salon upgrades are tied to the number of transactions you complete at your shop. You see, while you're busy serving customers, Didi is hard at work learning new styling techniques! The following table shows how it works:

Hair Salon Upgrades

Transactions	Upgrade
0	Basic styles and colors
48	First style and color upgrade
63	Second style and color upgrade
83	Third style and color upgrade
133	Fourth style and color upgrade
160	Final style and color upgrade

Style Savvy

Prima Official Look Book

Keep these last few details in mind when visiting Didi:

- All purchases made at Didi's salon spend your money instead of shop funds. If you're low on cashola, get back to work and sell more stuff!
- You don't need to buy a new hairstyle to change your color, and you don't need to change your hair color to try a new style. It's all up to you!
- Many hairstyles come with style options—just look for the little “style option” logo near the hairstyle while flipping through Didi's catalog. It's totally free to change your hair to its style option, and vice versa. This is a neat way to update your look when you're low on dough!

Olivia's Cosmetics Supply

Yearning for more makeup? Tired of those lousy brows? Then skip on over to Olivia's, where you'll find a host of hot new cosmetics. Olivia sells mascara, eye shadow, lipstick, and even colored contacts—or give you fabulous new eyebrows to make your peepers pop! Check her magazine rack for all the latest makeup trends.

Like Didi, Olivia will periodically swing by your shop to let you know when a new shipment of makeup has arrived. And, yes, you guessed it: Olivia's upgrades are linked to the number of transactions you complete at your store, just like Didi's. As you reach certain transaction milestones, you'll unlock new cosmetics to add to your kit. The following table breaks it all down:

Cosmetics Upgrades

Transactions	Upgrade
0	Basic cosmetics options
31	First cosmetics upgrade
46	Second cosmetics upgrade
66	Third cosmetics upgrade
116	Fourth cosmetics upgrade
160	Final cosmetics upgrade

NOTE

Like buying new hairstyles, purchasing cosmetics from Olivia spends your money. A percentage of each transaction made at your shop is added to your money, so get to work if you need more moola!

Rococco's Fashion Shows

After you rack up a few sales at your shop, you'll be blessed with a special visit from Rococco, the outrageous host of fashion contests held in your town. Rococco invites you to join her at the contest hall and try your hand at the big leagues of fashion: runway competitions! The contest hall is located on the east side of town, and you can visit there anytime you like after receiving Rococco's invite.

Now, don't be nervous; you won't be strutting down the catwalk yourself (except in international contests)! You're a stylist, after all, and your job is to pick out the awe-inspiring ensembles that your model will wear.

Your wardrobe and stockroom inventory are not taken into account for fashion contests. Instead, Rococco supplies the clothes and accessories, which all contestants must draw from. The trick to winning fashion shows therefore lies in picking the best pieces from what Rococco has to offer.

Before you begin crafting your model's ensemble, listen closely to words of advice from friends, and carefully consider the contest's concept. Then pore through the clothes Rococco has provided, looking for the brand whose style best matches the overall theme of the show. For example, if the concept is “punk-rock chic,” you'd ideally want to stick with items from Mad-Jack—and you'd best keep far away from contrasting brands like Alvarado or Sonata!

NOTE

Rococco often throws a few off-concept pieces in the contest wardrobe, just to see if you're paying attention. Keep an eye on each piece's brand and do your best to stick to a common label—the one that seems like the best fit for the show's theme.

Once you've decided on a brand, it's time to dress your model. This is where things get a little tricky—and where you need to get creative! Avoid overdoing it with lots of layers (skirts over pants is usually a no-no), but don't go too simple, either. Again, consider the contest's theme and put something together that really rocks!

You'll be competing against other savvy stylists during each fashion contest, so there's always a chance one of them will outdo you. If you fail a contest, you won't be able to try that contest again until the next day—so do your best to conquer the runway!

TIP

Always save your game before entering a fashion contest. That way, if you fail, you can simply load your game and try again!

Remember: the eyes of the fashion community are always upon you, even when you're out having fun! After agreeing to meet your friend, consider stopping by your apartment and change into something fitting for the event at hand.

You'll be able to enjoy wireless fashion contests, exchange promotional flyers, and even visit your friends' shops to buy new fashions from them!

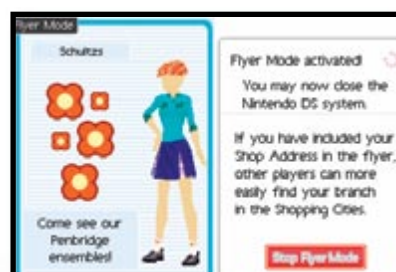

Flyer Mode

After attracting 35 visitors to your store, you can visit Godfrey at Dominic's mansion and unlock the Advertisements and Flyers feature. Ads are for single-player use only, but flyers are special; after creating them in single-player mode, you can use Flyer mode to send them to other players, hoping to draw them to your store! And since you may get flyers from other players, you can use Flyer mode to view and delete any flyers you've received.

Activate Flyer mode to begin broadcasting your personalized flyer to other players. If you created a Nintendo WFC Shop in the Shopping Cities mode, you can add its Shop Address to your flyers to help other players find your store! If you like, you can close your DS to save power while Flyer mode is active—your flyer will continue to broadcast. Tap "Stop Flyer Mode" to cease broadcasting and back out. You may then broadcast another flyer or return to the main menu.

Wireless Contest

You've tried fashion contests before, but have you ever tried competing against your friends? Wireless contests let you do just that! First, choose which player will host the contest—the host gets to set the theme, judge the outfits, and serve as the contest's model. All other players enter as stylists, hoping to win the host's favor and take home first prize!

Wireless contests are a bit different than regular fashion shows. Rather than drawing from Rococco's set wardrobes, all stylists use the clothes and apparel they've acquired over the course of their careers. This makes for some truly wild and unique affairs!

All stylists have three minutes to dress their model in the best ensemble they can come up with. If time runs out, Rococco herself will dress any lingering models—and trust us when we say you do not want that!

So, who has taken home top prize? The host decides, but try and play it fair, ladies—no fruit-basket bribes, OK?

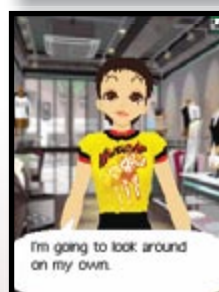

Wireless Shop

Choose "Wireless Shop" from the DS Wireless Play menu, and you'll have the option to open your shop to nearby friends or to have Godfrey whisk you away to a nearby friend's town so you can go shopping.

After opening your shop, just sit back, relax, and wait for your friends to stop by. Once someone strolls through your door, wait for them to browse your stockroom or to simply have you pick out something special for them.

If you decide to go shopping, Godfrey will gladly drive you to a nearby friend's store—provided it's open for business. Once you arrive, you can buy new styles from your friend's shop. This is a great way to add hard-to-find items to your wardrobe!

Nintendo Wi-Fi Connection

At the main menu, tap the Nintendo Wi-Fi Connection option to explore Style Savvy's Nintendo WFC modes. Unlike DS Wireless Play, these modes connect you to the outside world, letting you interact with other players all over the USA! Naturally, an Internet connection is required, and you may need to configure your DS system settings for Nintendo Wi-Fi Connection before you can enjoy these game modes.

Here's a quick look at the Nintendo WFC modes you can explore:

Download Items: Choose this option to download special items from Nintendo. See your instruction manual for details.

Shopping Cities: Open your own shop or branch shop in the Shopping Cities, or travel to other players' towns and visit their shops. There are several cities to choose from, with several buildings in each city. If you open a branch shop, you'll be assigned a Shop Address in one of the buildings. This Shop Address can be added to flyers and sent out to other players. Set up to three mannequins for sale and the money earned adds to your Shop Funds—everything sells for 50% off. You can also use your Personal Funds to go shopping in the Shopping Cities—choose a building, select a floor, and choose a shop! You can save the Shop Address to easily find that store again. Also, the store's owner may come visit in single-player mode later on.

Nintendo Wi-Fi Connection Settings: View and adjust your connection settings (if necessary). See your instruction manual for more information.

CLOTHING catalog

With over 10,000 pieces of stylish clothing and eye-catching apparel to hoard in Style Savvy, there's more than enough to merit a full-size fashion catalog! Skim the following pages to scope out all the unique pieces of clothing and apparel that make up each brand. If you like, you can even go through your wardrobe and mark off all the pieces you've collected!

NOTE

Remember: All clothes are bought at the buyer's center, but only certain brands and styles are available each day. The buyer's center's stock changes throughout the day, though, so drop by often!

Also, remember that everything you buy at the buyer's center is permanently added to your own wardrobe. Just return to your apartment after a shopping spree, and you can try on all your latest ensembles!

NOTE

All clothes that fall under "Collaboration" sections are special pieces that you may obtain only during Collaboration events, in which a brand representative visits your store and lets you decide the colors of a new garment, creating wild collaborative fashions! To get a brand rep to visit your store so you may create these items, just keep selling lots of clothes made by their brand.
